

West Urges Conference With Germany Invited

SEGGI HEADS NEW ITALIAN GOVERNMENT

ROME (AP) — Antonio Segni was sworn in today as head of Italy's government.

His Cabinet was made up entirely of members of his own Christian Democrat party, which has less than a majority in Parliament. Promised right-wing support from Liberals and Monarchists made Segni virtually sure of winning at least his first vote of confidence, probably within a week.

President Giovanni Gronchi swore Segni into office after approving his cabinet lineup.

Segni needed no parliamentary vote of confidence to assume office. But late this week or early next both the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate must approve the Cabinet. Failure to get this would force him to resign.

The 68-year-old leader's Cabinet is limited to Christian Democrats only. The party, although Italy's largest, is 26 votes short of the 299 necessary for a majority in the Chamber of Deputies. It falls four votes short of a Senate majority.

The Liberals, a right-of-center group with 4 seats in the Senate and 17 deputies, have agreed to back the Segni government on the first confidence votes. The new premier is expected to pick up the nine additional necessary deputies from the 23 Monarchists in the chamber.

Amintore Fanfani's left-of-center coalition of Christian Democrats and Democratic Socialists resigned three weeks ago.

Segni, a Sardinian, fashioned a government leaning slightly to the right. But his Cabinet includes one important man—Foreign Minister Giuseppe Pella—whose appointment could cause trouble with the Liberals.

Pella is identified with a policy of friendship for President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

Driver of Death Car Is 15-Year-Old Boy

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 15-year-old youth and his father face motor vehicle charges today in the wake of a traffic accident that killed 3-year-old Vendetta Mullen in the East Liberty District.

Patrolman John Joyce said Charles McCarrell was operating an auto that struck the girl Sunday as she walked along a street near her home. The youth was charged with involuntary manslaughter.

Harry V. McCarrell, father of the youth, was charged with permitting an unlicensed operator to drive his auto.

Symington Disagrees With Ike on Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) says the United States could make a great many more missiles if it wanted to.

Disagreeing with President Eisenhower's view that the nation is going forward with missiles as rapidly as possible under the present setup, Symington said:

"He (Eisenhower) may say that we are going forward as rapidly as possible, because he believes we are spending as much money as we should in the missile field. That is his opinion. I do not agree."

110 Space Aspirants Are Taking Preliminary Tests

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 110 men who are vying to become this country's first man in space are undergoing "a whole host of tests" here to narrow the field.

Dr. T. Keith Glennan, chief of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said this Sunday, adding that within three months the candidates will be cut to about 12.

In an interview with Rep. Harold C. Ostertag (R-N.Y.) filmed for New York TV stations, Glennan said the men were called to Washington for a variety of tests and examinations—psychological, physical and mental.

After this is completed, Glennan said, the men will be asked to volunteer for the first flight. Then, he said, this is the plan:

"Out of this group of volunteers—and there will be many more than we need—we will finally select perhaps 12. Not more than 12."

"And then these men, the 12 of them, will go into a very strict training regimen which will extend over many, many months and, ultimately, on the appointed day one of the 12 will make the first flight. And which one this will be will not be known until this date."

Glennan did not say when the first U.S. effort will be made to put a man into space.

Dems Pledge Full Measure Of Cooperation on Foreign Policies During Emergency

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats promised today a full measure of cooperation with the Eisenhower administration on foreign policies during Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' illness.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said after a conference with Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) of the Foreign Relations Committee that Democrats will do everything they can to help keep administration foreign policies intact.

"It will be the policy of the majority to advise and consult with the administration in every possible way in an attempt to help them develop a strong, positive foreign policy," Johnson said.

Sens. John Sparkman (D-Ala) and Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), other members of the committee, made similar pledges in separate interviews.

Dulles, in Walter Reed Army Hospital, starts this week a series of radiation treatments for cancer. The new malignancy, announced Saturday, was discovered after a hernia operation Dulles had undergone the day before.

The State Department said Sunday that Dulles' condition "continues satisfactory." During the day the secretary talked for about 15 minutes with Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter.

Herter, returning Saturday night from a South Carolina vacation, told newsmen he would accept appointment as secretary of state if President Eisenhower asked him to.

Eisenhower said Saturday that Dulles would continue on the leave of absence he obtained to undergo the operation and said "I will, of course, be in close touch with him constantly."

Dulles' doctors, meantime, gave him a fighting chance to recover enough from the cancer to remain on the job at least part time.

They took the view it is still too early to tell what course Dulles' illness may take, especially in a man of his strength and will power. Although Dulles will be 71 this month, he resumed a full work schedule after a cancer operation in 1956 and has battled off other illnesses since then.

Judge To Hear Plea For Integration Stay

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A federal judge decides today whether a Virginia community should immediately integrate its public schools.

Chief Judge Simon E. Sobeloff of the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals in Baltimore hears a plea for a stay of a school integration order affecting northwest Virginia's Warren County High School.

Sobeloff recently heard similar pleas for stay of federal integration orders from Arlington and Alexandria, school officials. In those cases he said he found no reason to put off the integration deadlines.

Negro pupils were then admitted to former all white schools in both of the northern Virginia communities.

DROWNS IN YMCA POOL

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—Jeffrey Ulien, 9, of Altoona, drowned Saturday in the YMCA swimming pool where he was participating in a swimming class of some 50 youngsters, Coroner D. Harold Troxell reported. The boy's body was found in seven feet of water.

Plan Satellites To Help Weather Man

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States will try in "the immediate near future" to launch the first of four satellites to help the weather man with his forecasts.

"The imminence of the first attempt was announced Saturday night by Dr. Francis Reichelderfer, chief of the U. S. Weather Bureau, who said the launching would be from Cape Canaveral, Fla."

He said a successful satellite, properly equipped, could televise its surroundings as it orbited.

Labor Chiefs Meeting in Puerto Rico

By NORMAN WALKER
SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — AFL-CIO leaders gathered today in this Caribbean resort to plan how to combat unemployment back on the mainland and how to capitalize on the favorable political complexion of Congress.

The union chiefs, here for their winter meeting, cheered advance word from Washington that legislation they long have wanted is about to be introduced to raise the $1-an hour minimum wage to $1.25.

Members of the AFL-CIO Executive Council were less communicative on what they may do about a second snub from President Maurice Hucheson of the Carpenters Union to their request to explain his refusal to answer questions of the Senate Labor-Management Committee.

This is the second time Hucheson, a council member, has failed to answer an invitation from the group to personally explain questioned expenditures of his union as well as his indictment in an Indiana land scandal.

The labor leaders were torn between wanting to keep their anti-corruption drive in high gear and the fear that if they administer a public spanking to Hucheson, he will make good a dare to pull his 850,000-member union out of the AFL-CIO.

George Meany, the AFL-CIO president who is directing the federation's anti-corruption drive, was delayed in arriving from Washington by a cold. But Meany was reported not willing to lose the Carpenters from the AFL-CIO family as happened when the federation ousted the Teamsters Union.

Boosting the amount and coverage of the federal minimum wage long has been an AFL-CIO goal. Union leaders said they expected that a bill to be introduced today in the Senate and House would provide the $1.25 hourly minimum and would also extend its protection to nearly nine million persons now exempt.

Ten Meet Death In Collision on Rainslick Highway

ALAMO, Tex. (AP) — Ten persons were killed on a rainslick highway Sunday in a shattering automobile crash that jammed the speedometer on one vehicle at 80 m.p.h.

Four of the dead were children. The head-on collision occurred seven miles south of here in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, practically on the Texas-Mexico border.

Muddy rescue workers pried and tugged for more than an hour to remove nine bodies from one crumpled automobile.

Highway patrolman M. L. Dailey said the speedometer on the car of John T. Clossner, a father of eight, was struck at 80 miles per hour. Clossner was traveling east and the other car west, Dailey said.

Details of the crash, which killed every occupant of the two cars, were meager. Tom Handy, a nearby resident, said he stepped onto his porch about the time they collided.

"It just happened so fast... all I know was that one car was going east and one west," Handy said.

Domingo Canhi, Handy's neighbor, said he "heard something go boom real loud."

Conference on Independence of Britain's Colony

LONDON (AP) — The heads of the Greek and Turkish communities on Cyprus arrived in London Sunday for the formal talks to arrange independence for Britain's east Mediterranean colony.

About 4,000 Greek Cypriots gave Archbishop Makarios a resounding welcome as the bearded leader arrived at London Airport from Athens.

About 200 flag-waving Turkish Cypriots were on hand when Dr. Fazil Kutchuk flew in from Nicosia and Ankara.

Makarios and Kutchuk will sit down Tuesday with the foreign ministers of Britain, Greece and Turkey in a parley to draw the final terms for the conversion of Cyprus into a republic.

Makarios was exiled by the British from Cyprus in 1956 because he refused to disavow the terror campaign of the EOKA underground.

Governor Calls Legislative Leaders to Hear Tax Report

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Lawrence's Tax Advisory Committee today recommended increasing the 3 per cent sales tax to 3½ per cent as the cornerstone of a 400 million dollar tax package.

The committee also proposed that the sales levy itself be expanded to include across-the-board sales, trade-in values on automobiles and other appliances, electric and telephone bills, utility maintenance equipment and tools and repair and service charges.

This package of sales tax changes would yield an additional 284 million dollars if enacted before April, the committee said.

It also called for revival of the one cent bottle soft drinks tax, a 25 per cent levy on cigars, pipe and chewing tobacco, a six-mill personal property tax.

The sales tax currently is at 3 per cent and the cigarette tax at five cents a pack. The corporate net income tax is 6 per cent but was scheduled to drop to 5 per cent at the end of the year. The cigarette tax was to drop a penny on June 1.

Lawrence appointed the 12 members to the committee last December.

At his press conference last week, the governor said he hoped the committee—made up of business, labor and government interests—would come up with a unanimous report.

A boost in Pennsylvania's sales tax would make the Commonwealth's levy one of the highest in the nation.

It was expected to produce 380 million dollars in the current biennium, ending May 31, but actual collections are running more than 30 million dollars behind estimates.

With the advisory group's work completed, prospects grew brighter that the administration would be able to produce its budget by the tentative March 2 date set by the governor last week.

Grandmother and Six Tots Dead in South Bend Fire

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—A mother returned home early Sunday to find rescue workers carrying the bodies of six of her children and her mother from the ruins of a fire.

A seventh child, Queen Esther Pitman, 6, survived when her grandmother told her to run out of the flaming house.

The victims were Mrs. Mary Reeves, 58, and her grandchildren, Wilbur Parker, 10; Terry Parker, 8; Harold Pitman, 7; Laurel Pitman, 3; Jeannie Pitman, 18 months; and Mary Elizabeth Pitman, 6 months.

The mother, Amelia Parker, 32, said she was visiting in South Bend. She returned an hour and a half after the fire had destroyed the four-room concrete block home one mile west of here.

Leslie Parker, father of the older children, was reported somewhere in Michigan.

The little girl who survived said the fire started when burning coals popped out of a heating stove onto a pile of paper.

Heroin Valued at $3,660,800 Is Seized

NEW YORK (AP)—Federal and city narcotics agents held 27 persons in custody today after a series of raids that uncovered what the officers said was the second largest amount of heroin ever seized in the United States—more than 32 pounds of it.

The value of the pure heroin, after being cut and sold to addicts and pushers, was estimated at $3,660,800 by Inspector Edward Carey of the Police Narcotics Bureau.

Authorities started the lightning raids at 8:30 Saturday night, and continued until 5 a.m. Sunday. Raids were made in Manhattan, the Bronx and Queens, and agents reached out into Long Island and New Jersey to round up suspects.

BIG THREE PROPOSAL IS SET FORTH IN IDENTICAL NOTES SENT TO MOSCOW

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France proposed to the Soviet Union today that a four-power foreign ministers conference on Germany be convened this spring with German advisers present.

A preference was expressed for late April or early May as the meeting time.

This is the first time the Western powers have called for inclusion within the conference room of representatives from Communist East Germany and Allied West Germany.

While they would have the role of advisers, the step could prove to be a historic move toward some compromise on the problem of reunifying Germany.

The Western proposals were set forth in similar notes delivered in Moscow today.

U. S. officials opened up the possibility of a summit conference to follow if the foreign ministers meeting succeeded in making substantial progress on German issues.

These officials said that a top-level session which would bring together President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev would not be excluded.

The immediate strategy behind the call for a foreign ministers conference is to get the Soviets to the conference table just prior to their deadline for handing over their occupation responsibilities in East Berlin to the East German government.

Last November, Khrushchev threatened such action after six months. The deadline would be May 27. It holds the danger of a new Communist blockade of Berlin.

The Western powers would prefer that the conference be held in Geneva or alternatively in Vienna.

Officials said they also thought late April or early May would be the best time to start.

The note released at the State Department here said:

"The U. S. government is prepared to participate in a conference of the ministers of foreign affairs of the U.S.S.R., France, the United Kingdom and the United States, and is ready to consider any suggestions as to a date and place, which would be fixed by mutual agreement. The place and date should be settled through diplomatic channels."

"The conference should deal with the problem of Germany in all its aspects and implications."

The aspects which would be dealt with include such immediate issues as the Western demand for reunification of Germany, the Soviet plan to oust the Western powers from Berlin and to make a peace treaty with the two halves of Germany; and other issues related to Germany such as broad questions of European security and of the possibility of disengagement of Soviet and Western forces in central Europe.

The Western powers told the Soviets that if the Communists try to cut the lines of the Western powers into Berlin "the danger to world peace" should be evident.

And, once again, as in an earlier note on Dec. 31, the U. S., British and French governments asserted their determination "to uphold by all appropriate means their communications with their sectors of Berlin."

West Germany upheld the position of the Western powers in a parallel note, officials here said, but technically the proposal of an East-West meeting comes from the three powers which have occupation rights in Germany along with the Soviet Union.

Russia's Jan. 10 proposal for a 28-nation conference to write a German peace treaty got a brush-off. The Western notes were a reply to the Soviet communication and the call for a foreign ministers meeting was in part at least a counter-proposal.

The Soviet peace pact project was called "stupid" by Secretary (Turn to Page Twelve)

FBI on Trail of Fugitive Using Plane and Cars

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—The hunt for one of the nation's 10 most wanted criminals fanned out from northern Vermont today after the fugitive landed a stolen plane here and fled in a stolen car.

The FBI Sunday night said Frank Lawrence Sprenz, 29, of Akron, Ohio, stole the plane in Scranton, Pa., Friday night or early Saturday, and made a crazy landing at Champlain Airport, just outside Burlington.

The single engine Cessna tipped over in the snow and was badly damaged. The FBI said Sprenz walked away from the plane, and made his way to Winoski about a mile away.

In Winoski Sprenz went to a used car lot and told the owner he was interested in buying a car. The dealer gave him a car to try out and Sprenz has not been seen since.

Sprenz has been sought since he broke away last April from an Akron jail where he was serving time for armed robbery.

Governor Promises Support For Construction of Dam

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gov. Lawrence wound up a one-day survey of flood stricken communities in western Pennsylvania with a promise to press for quick construction of Kinzua Dam.

The proposed flood control dam at Kinzua near Warren would harness waters of the Allegheny River. The federal government already has made money available for initial construction work, but the project has been delayed by legal action started by the Seneca Indians.

The governor Sunday visited Meadville, Sharon, New Castle, Kittanning, Freeport and other communities along streams that left their banks in January.

At Sharon, Mayor Michael J. Dunn proposed that the state contribute about 5 million dollars toward construction of a proposed 28-million dollar flood control dam on the Shenango River at Sharpsville.

The governor said he will ask the state Justice Dept. to look into the possibility of needy communities being given aid from $800,000 in emergency relief funds left over from a 1955 appropriation for flood damage in the eastern part of the state.

Lawrence started his tour at Meadville after motoring there from his home in Pittsburgh. He told newsmen: (Turn to Page Twelve)

Sen. Barr To Run for Mayor of Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP)—State Sen. Joseph M. Barr will seek the Democratic nomination for mayor of Pittsburgh at the May primary election with the blessing of the Allegheny County Democratic organization.

Barr was endorsed Saturday along with Coroner William D. McClelland for a county commissioner post. Barr also is the state party chairman.

All other incumbents were endorsed by the party leaders for reelection. But a fight appears in the making for the district attorney nomination.

Sheriff William H. Davis left the slate making session an hour early and indicated to newsmen he strongly opposed the endorsement of Dist. Atty. Edward C. Boyle. The two formerly were close friends but now apparently are far apart. Davis said he expected to name a candidate to oppose Boyle within a few days.

State Troopers Report Unusually Active Weekend

Warren State Police kept fairly busy over the weekend starting at 10:05 a. m. Saturday to investigate a two car accident on Route 6, about half a mile west of Clarendon when a car driven by Hildore Peterson, RD 1, Clarendon, crossed the highway in a southerly direction and ran into the side of a vehicle headed east operated by George Carmony, Railroad street, Clarendon. Damages amounted to $200.

At 2:30 p. m. Saturday Troopers went to the scene of a one car accident two miles east of Warren on Route 6 where a car operated by C. D. Scalse, 16 Eddy street, ran off the road hitting a bridge. Mrs. Jennie Scalse, 68, same address, was taken to Warren General Hospital for treatment of fractured leg. Scalse told police his car wheels locked causing him to lose control. Damages were estimated at $500.

Sunday at 7:50 p. m. found State Police headed for the McCoy Road, about half way between Youngsville and Sugar Grove, where Leslie Develaux, Sugar Grove, failed to negotiate a curve and rolled his car over into a nearby stream. No injuries were sustained and damages amounted to $200.

More Pressure for Kinzua Dam Urged By Congressman

A conference in Oil City Friday between Congressman Leon H. Gavin and representatives of the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce Flood Control Committee resulted in the group being advised to concentrate their efforts in behalf of the Kinzua Dam as the key to the solution of the local flood problem.

Bernard Goldberg, vice chairman, with Willard Walker and Harold Curtis sought information from the Congressman on possible federal assistance on dredging the Allegheny River or constructing dikes to protect against the high waters which periodically threaten the community.

Gavin told committee members that such a project would require a three-year minimum time element before construction could be authorized or funds allocated and urged that more pressure be brought in the matter of the Proposed Kinzua Dam. The Representative also reminded that a U. S. Army Engineer's survey, completed at a cost of over $75,000, had disclosed that a proposed alternate plan, i.e. diverting Lake Erie waters, would not answer the Allegheny River's overflow problems and stated that estimated costs of the scheme would run far more than exponents claim. The alternate proposal was termed "a good talking point or delaying tactic for those interested in holding up Kinzua Dam construction."

Mr. Gavin also recommended possible conferences with the Seneca Indians who have been blocking the project for many years and suggested that winning of their support would permit engineers to begin construction with money already appropriated.

Conspiracy Trial Believed Nearing End

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Possibly today the government will end its case in the conspiracy trial of Rep. William J. Green and six other men.

Two FBI agents testified last Thursday about a "political contribution" allegedly made by one of the defendants to Green. They were expected to be the last witnesses called by the prosecution.

U. S. District Judge Frederick V. Folmer recessed the trial for the usual long weekend at the conclusion of this testimony. The trial starts its sixth week today.

Jaycees to Sponsor J.E.T. Program Here

Warren Jaycees announce that they have agreed to serve as sponsor for an incoming Junior Executive Training Program (JET Program) for the Experiment in International Living at Putney, Vermont. Jaycees will undertake to provide homes for three weeks for the incoming members of the program who are junior executives from various foreign countries. These visitors will stay in Warren for a period of three weeks, beginning March 22, to learn of American homelife and ways of doing business before going on to formal studies at Syracuse University.

The Jaycees are interested in hearing from people who would like to open their homes to these guests for the period indicated and believe from their experience in the Community Ambassador Project that experience gained by both the Ambassador and the host family would be highly beneficial. Any person desiring to serve as a host can obtain further information by calling David Swanson during the day at Warren 348, and William Hill at Warren 4189 during the evening hours.

Jury Being Chosen In Fireworks Case

A panel called for jury selection to hear an appeal in trespass case before Alexander C. Flick, David S. Asp vs Robert S. Biers, this morning was dismissed until this afternoon at 2:00 with the announcement that the litigation listed had been settled out of court.

When court convened, jurors were being selected to hear the cases of Allen Lowe and parents and Edward E. Vaughn and parents, plaintiffs against the Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Atlantic Fireworks Company. Both minors were severely injured following the Jaycee annual fireworks display several years ago.

Other court cases have been settled or continued.

Planning Commission Studies Flood Facts

The monthly meeting of the Warren County Planning Commission held last week found the flood problem high on its agenda. The Commission passed a resolution authorizing President James Kannen, to establish a committee to ascertain the extent of flood protection which would be afforded Warren by construction of the Kinzua Dam. If, after this study, the Commission feels it is warranted, a member of the Commission will attend a February meeting at Washington which other proponents of the Dam have arranged with our congressmen.

The Commission also voted to sponsor a get-acquainted session composed of other planning commissions and interested township officials at which the problems and activities of the County Planning Commission would be explained to representatives of other bodies. This meeting will be held during the course of the next month.

A publicity committee report set forth as its intended objectives an extensive publicity campaign to awaken county residents to the danger of unplanned development and to further acquaint them with the proposed activities and program of the Commission.

The finance committee was instructed to continue talking with the County Commissioners until a satisfactory budget and program could be worked out.

Chances for Tax Cuts Are Reported Nipped

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Wilbur Mills (D-Ark) has all but nipped chances for any tax cuts or increases this year—including President Eisenhower's proposed gasoline tax hike.

Mills, chairman of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, asked instead for a big revamping of the tax system. He said the present tax setup is outdated and stunts the nation's economic growth.

Mills spoke Sunday night to a conference of the Tax Executives Institute.

Woman on Trial for Plotting Girl's Death

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, accused of plotting the death of her daughter-in-law to keep her son for herself, is to go on trial today on charge of first degree murder.

The prosecution is expected to ask the death penalty for the 54-year-old woman, claiming that she was so jealous of her son, Frank, that she plotted for months trying to hire a killer.

Mrs. Duncan's chief accusers are two Santa Barbara laborers. They say Mrs. Duncan promised them $5,000 to kill her son's pregnant bride, Olga Kupczyk Duncan, 30, a nurse.

Viewing Harrisburg

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP)—Business is already hoisting the danger signals on taxes—even before Gov. Lawrence's Tax Study Committee has made a report.

It is delighted by the new tax climate created during the administration of former Gov. Leader and wants it continued.

For example, the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce put out a special report noting that new industry is now moving into the state with the understanding that the tax improvements would be retained.

But, reading between the lines, you can detect a fear that the Lawrence tax group may come up with an idea of expanding the 3 per cent sales tax to hit exemptions enjoyed by business.

It will be a Solomon's choice for the Tax Study Committee and later on for the Legislature.

There is a general agreement that some of the exemptions in the sales tax will have to be removed if the commonwealth's 1959-61 budget is to be balanced. But will they be exemptions in behalf of business? Or those that now benefit the direct consumer?

A public utility like your light company is free from paying any sales tax on material it buys in producing power. A farmer is exempt from the levy on such items as feed and fertilizer. An appliance manufacturer doesn't pay a sales tax on the steel he uses in making a refrigerator.

On the other hand, Mr. Average Taxpayer gets a free sales tax ride when he buys a suit of clothes. His wife pays no sales tax on the food she buys at the supermarket.

The money that can be raised by removing these exemptions is considerable.

And, when the hammer falls later in this session of the Legislature, there's going to be an eye cocked on the political picture. Lawmakers hate to vote for taxes. When forced into a corner, many of them will choose a course that will hurt them least politically.

That's why a big organization like the State Chamber of Commerce is already sounding a warning that a new tax load on business will hurt industry. Corporations have fewer votes than direct consumers.

The chamber points out that taxes on business are responsible for 30 per cent of the commonwealth's revenues—higher than any other state in the nation.

The sales tax, considered a consumer tax, yields 23 per cent of the state's income. That's far lower than states like California (45 per cent), Illinois (43 per cent), Michigan (41 per cent) and Ohio (32 per cent).

Gov. Lawrence and the 1959 Legislature have their work cut out for them.

CYPRUS: After Years of Violence, Hope for Peace

Cyprus has always been the crossroads of the Mediterranean. In its long history, Egyptians, Phoenicians, Assyrians, Greeks, Romans, Venetians, Turks and English have ruled it.

While once it supplied the timber for the fleets of Alexander the Great, mountainous Cyprus is now a treeless and arid land, where the 20th century rubs shoulders with the ancient world. A common conveyance, this oxcart is hardly changed since Biblical times, when St. Paul preached the Gospel on the island. Here, too, Richard the Lion-Hearted married his Berengaria.

Held by Turkish sultans since the late Middle Ages, Cyprus was annexed by Britain in 1914. Piper stands on ramparts built by Crusaders. Cathedral in distance is now a Moslem mosque.

In World War II, Cyprus was an important base for British planes. Only 230 miles from Suez and 1,000 from Russian oil fields, Britain held to the bastion through years of strife.

After the war, long-smoldering hatred between Greek and Turkish Cypriots erupted into terrorism and bloodshed. Greeks, outnumbering the Turks 400,000 to 100,000, wanted Greece to take over the island. Their underground, the EOKA, fought Turk and Briton, soldier and civilian. Turks, above, fighting for union with Turkey, were dispersed with tear gas.

The British, trying to keep a semblance of peace, were targeted for assassins from both sides. A Tommy tends comrade wounded when terrorist bomb exploded in a church.

Leader of the Greek Cypriots, Archbishop Makarios of the Cyprian branch of the Greek Orthodox church was exiled by the British. He pleaded for an independent Cyprus before U.N.

A period of truce once saw Greek and Turkish flags carried side by side. Now, negotiations between Greece and Turkey at last give hope that a free, united country may be born.

Forage Testing Service Available in County

Asst. County Agent, Blaine Schlosser, reports that the Forage Testing Service of the Pennsylvania State University is now available to farmers in Warren County. This new program features roughage analyses and suggested feeding programs for sheep and swine, as well as dairy and beef cattle. Sample cartons, forms and sampling devices can be obtained at the County Agricultural Extension office located in the Courthouse Annex. Any type of hay or silage will be tested. In addition, grains and home or custom mixed grain mixtures can be submitted for crude protein and fiber analyses.

Schlosser explains that this new service will operate in a manner similar to the present soil testing program. Full use of the Forage Testing Service can substantially increase returns on most dairy or livestock farms through improved nutrition and more economical feeding of farm animals. This new program of the Agricultural Extension Service at Penn State is the first, statewide, public service of its type known to exist in this country.

It is hoped that a number of Warren county farmers will take advantage of the new program. For further details, ask the county agent.

Miami Librarian Campaigns Against Children's Books

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Has the Wizard of Oz lost his magic? To some grownups in Florida, he has.

These same grownups have grounded boy's best friend, Tom Swift. They have relegated the Girl Scout series to the trash pile and vowed they never again want to look upon Horatio Alger or hear about the Lone Ranger.

It's part of a movement to ban outdated and "poorly written" children's books. The state librarian, Dorothy Dodd, started the campaign with an advisory to all public libraries.

She listed 17 titles now published and eight series out of print that should be withdrawn from circulation.

"Kids don't like that fanciful stuff any more," said Dr. Frank B. Sessa, chairman of the Miami Public Library. "They want books about missiles and atomic submarines."

In her letter suggesting the removal of the books, Miss Dodd said the series-type "are poorly written, untrue to life, sensational, foolishly sentimental and consequently unwholesome for the children in your community."

Included on the list was Uncle Wiggily, a book Mrs. Edmonds said was requested only once in 25 years.

Uncle Wiggily, however, has a friend in high office in Florida.

Gov. LeRoy Collins said he would hate to see the old favorites such as the Bobsey Twins go. He didn't question that better books are being written.

"But at the same time," he said, "I think the judgment of what's good and bad should rest in the great body of people who read the books rather than those who may feel that they are in a special position to judge the quality."

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Paddy Chayefsky, most successful writer to come out of television, isn't going back to the medium that made him famous.

Why? Because he's scared. "I have an idea for a play which I think would be great for television," he remarked, "but I don't have the guts to do it. I'm scared they'll clobber me."

He didn't define who "they" are, but I gathered he meant the TV critics and the trade. He is sensitive on this score.

"I don't mind being knocked when I deserve it," he said. "Some of the reviews of 'The Goddess,' criticized things that I knew were wrong in the picture."

That's all right. But I don't like it when I'm slugged without justification.

The chunky, bearded playwright made his comments during his close scrutiny of the filming of "Middle of the Night" with Fredric March and Kim Novak. It was a hit play on Broadway and the road. Paddy has also had the prize film "Marty" and the so-so "Bachelor Party."

He talked wistfully of the days when he used to turn out 10 to 12 scripts a year for TV — "some good, some bad."

"I can remember one year when a bunch of us guys like myself, Reggie Rose and Sumner Locke Eliot were the bright young writers of TV," he said, grinning. "One year later, we were the"

AN UNFLAGGING SPIRIT

It is interesting to note Secretary of State Dulles, undergoing treatment for cancer, discovered as a result of an operation for hernia at the Walter Reed Hospital, Bethesda, Md., last week, finds his prestige among some of America's foreign friends higher than it perhaps has ever been.

His recent labors on his European tour, aimed at developing a united front between Britain, West Germany, France and the United States on the Berlin and general German question, have helped to persuade Western leaders of his solid devotion to their cause.

Dulles often has been the butt of criticism from our allies, and it is hardly fair to say he is their favorite secretary of state.

Nevertheless there has been a slowly growing appreciation of his dogged, Spartan efforts for peace. And it is further recognized that he is not only his own secretary of state but is the fount of American foreign policy.

No replacement, however talented and wise, could likely fill his shoes at this important turn in East-West history. Not only Americans, but Britishers, Frenchmen and Germans hope for Dulles' swift recovery.

Whether the illness of Dulles will delay a possible foreign ministers meeting with the Soviet Union is still to be determined. Some officials say it would not necessarily have that result.

The prospect has been that a foreign ministers' meeting would be held probably in Geneva or Vienna in late April or May.

Should Dulles' condition resist treatment and make it necessary for him to remain inactive, the circumstances on the diplomatic front could force President Eisenhower's hand as to whether Dulles should continue as secretary of state or not.

The President's statement over the weekend carefully avoids any suggestion of any other outcome than radiation treatments or possible future surgery.

Authorities recognize, however, that if Dulles remains incapacitated in the final period of preparation for a meeting with the Russians, the President will face a very difficult decision as to whether he can afford to send an acting secretary of state to the conference table.

THE REV. CARL J. FRANZEN

Churchmen throughout the area join with his congregational and residents of Youngsville in expressing sorrow over the sudden passing of the beloved pastor of Saron Lutheran church, the Rev. Carl J. Franzen, who passed away unexpectedly at the parsonage Sunday morning. Since taking over the charge some years ago he had endeared himself to all with whom he came in contact including members of his church as well as the entire community.

WORLD TODAY

By James Marlow
Associated Press News Analyst

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—John Foster Dulles' six years as secretary of state have been more than unique. They provided the heart and guidelines of an era which now, whether or not he returns to full-time duty, may have to change.

President Truman trusted Secretary of State Dean Acheson. But President Eisenhower's confidence in Dulles has been so extraordinary that it seems accurate to say the secretary almost completely dominated foreign policy.

The Dulles years have been an era of standoff by the West and communism in which they gathered strength for any future tests. The first great test of this period is approaching in Germany.

Three times at least before Dulles became secretary—during the Truman-Acheson administration—world communism tried its muscles in a major way to see how much will the West had to resist. Three times it failed because it was resisted—in the Berlin blockade, in the Korean War, in the pressure on Greece and Turkey in the late 1940s.

These pushes were stopped by the Truman-Acheson policy—called containment—of building military bases and alliances around the Communist world and by its willingness to fight, as it showed in Korea.

The Communist world—especially the Soviet part of it—realized it had some growing to do. It subsided, at least temporarily, behind its frontiers and avoided major crises.

There was never any doubt it would push hard again, when it thought it could. The Truman-Acheson policy has been Dulles' basic policy. He adopted it, made it his own, and expanded it with new alliances.

He brought to it enormous energy and dedication, as his 350,000 miles of travel around the earth testify. These were essentially journeys to keep the fences mended. There was something almost heroic in this man's determination to do everything himself.

Because Dulles has pursued this containment policy relentlessly, he has been accused of being too rigid, too unbending, or, to use a phrase recently become popular, too inflexible.

True, he made few if any concessions to the Communists. But they made few, if any, either.

Just because Dulles devoted himself so thoroughly to the stand-off policy it is hard to recall anything which history could point to as original in his six years.

That does not mean history will find fault with his six years of stewardship as a whole, although it may quarrel with pieces of it. Perhaps in this era the Dulles policy was the only sensible one.

One thing is sure: In those six years, except for the conquest of half of Viet Nam and perhaps scattered islands near China, world communism has not obtained an extra inch of real estate.

But now the Soviets, after hibernating for years, are fully conscious of their power, as they demonstrated with their nuclear claims. As if to mark the end of a period, they are pushing again. They have made demands—in calling for a Western withdrawal from West Berlin—which involve not only this country's containment policy but its relations with its allies, its position in Europe, (Turn to Page Five)

All this talk about shooting on the stage, and even after its departure, thoughts of its comical appearance intervals more of spasm of mirth. Because of a desire not to embarrass any of the principals who will probably read this article we will refrain from using first names. Community services are an important part of the Warren County Heart Association. The association purchased two Heart Pacers, (which by application of electrodes to the outside of the body, can induce a stopped heart to beat again.) One Heart Pacer was placed in the operating room and one in the emergency room at the Warren General Hospital. "Wallet prevention cards" (cards indicate if patient is sensitive to antibiotic) were distributed to Warren County physicians for their patients. Low sodium or strict diet booklets are also made available. The heart association has to subsidize the salary of a technician employed in the Heart Station at the Warren General Hospital. The Rheumatic Fever Prevention Program has supplied many patients at minimum cost or free of charge with biellin for the prevention or re-occurrence of rheumatic fever, the forerunner of rheumatic disease in children. The Memorial Gifts Program is a form of remembrance for the deceased. Many persons wish to honor the memory of a relative, friend, or business associate who has died of heart disease by contributing to the fight against heart disease. The American Heart Association and its affiliates regard it as an important obligation to see that such gifts are promptly acknowledged to the family of the person honored, by means of a special card. A receipt is also sent to the donor for his records. To make a memorial gift, a donor need only send a contribution and specify the name and address of the family to which acknowledgment should be sent and his own name and address.

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Even when floods are front page news a large portion of the business population—and of city fathers, too—worries about the increasing dearth of water supplies.

Industry needs more each year. And per capita consumption mounts faster than the growth in population. The Interior Department reports that in the last five years more than 1,000 communities have had to ration water at some time or other.

The world has lots of water—but often in the wrong places or the wrong condition for human use.

Most is in the oceans. And schemes for conversion of salt water into fresh at reasonable cost is, in President Eisenhower's words, "on the threshold of solution."

Much of the available water is carried in cloud formations. And methods of getting it to earth where and when wanted are under constant study and trial.

Lots of the nation's water is concentrated in rivers that often overflow with costly damage. Flood control programs tackle both this problem and the salvaging of the water for later beneficial use.

The cost problem in turning sea water or brackish water into fresh is being tackled in a number of ways: solar distillation, evaporators that flash water into vapor under vacuum, a freezing process, a nuclear reactor sideline, an electric membrane method.

The cost now averages out at $1.75 per thousand gallons. Science hopes to cut this to 50 or 75 cents within five years.

Congress has appropriated 10 million dollars for five experimental plants. And various corporations here and abroad are trying out schemes of their own.

RADIO and TV

By CHARLES MERCER

AP Radio-Television Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—In her forthcoming book, "A Long Way from Missouri," Mary Margaret McBride remarks on the prophetic powers of David Sarnoff, now board chairman of RCA, who 30 years ago was forecasting television when we have it today.

Last week his son, NBC Board Chairman Robert W. Sarnoff, cast a prophetic look 10 years ahead to see what television will be like in 1969. He told the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce he foresaw:

The possibility of receiving most of a basic college education through accredited TV courses. (He reads Miss McBride's book, he'll observe that his father forecast the same thing in 1929.) People will be able to carry pocket-size transistor TV sets everywhere with them. There will be live international telecasts every day. Sets will have big flat wall screens, mural size, operated at chairside. Et cetera.

As an old crystal ball gazer myself, I adore prophecy and am inclined to believe every word of it. Consulting my personal crystal after Sarnoff consulted his, I was somewhat shaken to find his prophecy true. But mine was clouded by one Pete Ibbelson, successful business man, con-muter, devoted husband and parent.

There, in 1969, Pete was flying home from the office on the 5:48 helicopter. Nobody on his helio was reading those old-fashioned newspapers. Everyone had his own pocket transistor TV set. Many were watching the early evening news report, though a few tired business men were tuned to the 9th rerun of "I Love Lucy."

After landing at his local heliport Pete returned to a home quite different from that he had visualized for his wife, Grace, and himself away back in 1959.

"Grace," he used to say in 1959, "I love the kids, but sometimes I look forward to the day when they're in college and we're by ourselves. Then I'll have time to read some of the books I wanted to. I'll have time to..."

When he entered his house, Pete was greeted by a cacophony of sounds. Grace was staring at the 18-foot wall mural screen where NBC was presenting, live, from Central Africa, the coronation of King Zumbumburum of Urundia-Urundi. In the den Pete Jr. was tuned to his psychology TV college course. In the dining room Sue was cutting the class and had her transistor set tuned very loud to a popular singer.

There was nothing to do but turn on his transistor set. For a while, as he chewed his pills, he

THE PURPOSE OF HEART MONTH

February is the month of hearts. Centuries ago it was dedicated to St. Valentine as a symbol of love, at a time when the heart was considered the seat of the emotions. It was logical for heart associations to designate February as the month in the year to open our hearts and our checkbooks for the support of heart disease research.

There are various types of cardiac disease but in terms of age groups, they can be divided into two classes. Defects of congenital of infectious origin are more common in the young. Adults, especially in the later years of life, are affected with degenerative disorders, such as hardening of the coronary arteries. These vessels supply the old ticker with blood and any disturbance in its flow is a blow to the heart, which is primarily of muscular origin.

Much research will be needed before we learn to control the many afflictions that plague the heart. Elimination of all cardiac ailments is something else and it is doubtful whether it will be accomplished. Immortality is not given to humans.

It is better to hitch our wagon to the star that signifies the end of congenital and infectious forms of heart disease and the control of degenerative types. This will be a tremendous boon to mankind. Not only will death be postponed but old age will be more comfortable and conducive to greater activity.

Our surgeons are doing an excellent job of mending congenital defects. The same can be said of the scarred and narrowed valves left in the wake of rheumatic fever. The streptococcal infection that causes the latter is responsive to the antibiotics and these products are useful also in preventing recurrences of rheumatic fever.

Control of hardening of the coronary arteries presents a different problem. At present, diet, stress, exercise, and hormones are under consideration.

'O Promise You' Is Melody For Dem Advisory Council

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—New chairman of the House Republican policy committee, John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, complained recently that he was tired of having to run back to his district to explain the difference between the GOP and the Democrats.

This came up during the fight over the change in House leadership at the beginning of the session. Young Republican congressmen who survived the November elections said the Eisenhower program was too much like the New Deal. They wanted to be for something different and proposed to get it.

This situation has now been taken care of. It wasn't caused by Republican revolution or evolution, however.

WHAT SEEMS TO HAVE happened is that the Democrats have moved off further to the left, leaving the Republicans standing wherever it was they were.

The only policy on which the two parties seem to agree are statehood for Hawaii and home rule for the District of Columbia.

On control of inflation, taxation, small business, farm policy, labor, social security, public assistance, child welfare, education, health, housing, area redevelopment, public works, hydroelectric and atomic power programs the Democrats go way out on the limb beyond anything the Republicans have so far dared propose.

The catch in this comparison is, of course, that this Democratic Advisory Council does not speak for the party leadership in Congress. It is this leadership which really states party policy between national conventions.

SO FAR, SPEAKER Sam Rayburn and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson have refused to take part in advisory council deliberations. How powerful they are is indicated by the fact that whereas the advisory council recommended extreme liberalization of the Senate filibuster rule, Senator Johnson effectively blocked it.

There's only one big man from the South on the advisory council. He is Camille F. Gravel Jr., national committeeman from Louisiana. His state committee tried to give him the heave. But he stuck on by playing with the more liberal northern crowd that runs the advisory council.

Its 24 members include Governors G. Mennen Williams of Michigan and David Lawrence of Pennsylvania, Senators Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota and Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, ex-Governors Adlai Stevenson of Illinois and Averell Harriman of New York, National Chairman Paul Butler and ex-President Harry Truman. It speaks for the controlling liberal wing of the party at convention time.

THE CONTRAST BETWEEN the thinking of this group and the GOP of today is far greater than two years ago.

The Republican line now is economy, stability, balanced budget, sound dollar and get the federal government out of programs the states or private business could run.

The Democratic Advisory Council line is expansion all over the map, economic growth, more government participation in everything from soil conservation to outer space, with increased social security benefits for everybody thrown in for good measure.

Many of the advisory council's proposals are not even taken up in the President's messages to Congress this year.

This probably gives a tip on what the advisory council is up to. The Democrats seem to be lining up for a 1960 campaign of out-promising the Republicans on everything there is to offer.

That's the new difference Johnny Byrnes and his GOP colleagues will now have to explain to their constituents.

Development Group Officer Talks To Business and Professional Club

Members of the public relations committee of Warren Business and Professional Woman's Club were in charge of the February meeting, and had as guest speaker Charles H. Preston, representing Warren Development Association.

The meeting was held in the YWCA cafeteria, with Hulda Augermann, chairman, assisted by May Belle Baird, Nellie Holmes, Adda Logan, Rachel Ralston, Alice Fox, Gladys Judd, Margaret Lombard, and Louise Nelly. Tables were attractively decorated in a Valentine motif, with place cards, red and white tapers, and a centerpiece of red carnations, white mums, snapdragons and pussy willows, with heart-shaped ornaments.

Following the Swiss steak dinner, Miss Augermann welcomed members and guests and Margaret Lombard introduced the speaker.

Mr. Preston described efforts of Warren Development Association and the Matching Funds plan which has been in operation since the fall of 1956. He told of the survey conducted by the Arthur D. Little firm of Cambridge, Mass., and of findings in the Warren area. Opportunity for development of forest products in Warren county seems to be the most feasible type of industry the Little firm found. However, other factors enter the picture, namely, that there is need for public education on the subject of paper mills in the area, and also that this section of the state may be developed into a splendid recreational area.

Following Mr. Preston's talk, club members asked questions concerning various phases of Warren County Development Association. The speaker related that directors of the association are from Tidoute, Sugar Grove, Russell, North Warren, Sheffield, and Warren Borough. It is their desire to promote those areas hardest hit by unemployment, and to attempt to avoid such a situation. Mr. Preston stated if one industry decides to locate in an area out of about 150 contacts, that is a good percentage.

Another factor in which the Warren County Development Association is interested is keeping the Kinzua Dam project alive and educating the public on its feasibility.

Marion Davis, president, was in the chair for the business session. Guests at the dinner were Mrs. Barbara Koebler, Mrs. Geraldine Jones, and Miss Elizabeth Sneeboel.

Reports were heard from chairmen of the various committees. Neva Ladner reported the sale of candy, nuts, ribbon and wrapping paper is continuing and the finance committee is pleased with returns for this year.

Members of the health and safety committee, Evelyn Griffin chairman, stated a survey of the traffic lights was made in Warren Borough and sent to the State BPW.

Arvilla Ittel, membership chairman, presented names of Barbara Koebler and Geraldine Jones for membership and they were unanimously elected to the organization.

Ruth Rapp announced the Cancer Rooms will be open to B. P. W. members Monday evening to assist in the making of cancer dressings, and all who can spend any time between 7:00 and 9:00 o'clock are asked to assist. Ruth Fredrickson announced a bus may be chartered to go to the Ice Follies in Buffalo on April 5 if there are enough members who desire to go.

A special meeting of the club will be held April 2, the place to be announced, at which time Peg McGonnell and Helen Boiney will show pictures they took on their recent trip to Europe. Members were urged to attend the annual dinner of the Warren Area Chamber of Commerce February 25, with tickets to be available from Marion Davis.

The meeting adjourned with the singing of the Emblem Benediction.

Is Mid-Winter Bride

St. Teresa's Church at Akron, N. Y., was the setting for the wedding of Karen Ann Asmus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Asmus, Akron, and Donald Clifford Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gordon, Warren. The Rev. C. Kotkiewicz performed the ceremony January 31 at 11:00 a. m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk taffeta, with sculptured scoop neckline, the sleeves and bodice trimmed in embroidered alencon lace. A chapel train accented the bouffant skirt, and her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a pearl-trimmed shell headpiece. She carried a cascade of white roses and Stephanotis.

Patricia Asmus served as maid of honor with Jane Asmus as bridesmaid. Both are sisters of the bride and wore identical ballerina length gowns of sapphire blue nylon jersey with matching lace jackets. They carried cascade flower pieces of yellow mums.

Nancy Fitzgerald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Fitzgerald, Irvine, was flower girl, wearing aqua nylon and carrying a miniature yellow mum flower piece.

Gary Gordon, brother of the bridegroom was best man, with Gilbert T. Winkle as head usher. Junior ushers were Don Asmus and George Greenauer. The bride's mother wore navy blue with pink accessories, the mother of the bridegroom choosing navy with matching accessories. Both were favored with sweetheart rose corsages.

A reception followed at the American Legion Hall with 150 guests present, including friends and relatives from Lexington, Ky.; Warren; Jamestown and Buffalo, N. Y.

Girl Scouts Hostesses

Fifteen Girl Scouts of Troop 20 entertained their mothers and other guests at a lovely tea recently in the home service auditorium of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company. The event observed their completion of a five-week cooking class conducted by Mrs. Ruth Randinelli, home economist.

These Scouts have earned two proficiency badges, cook and housekeeper, by attending the class each week and compiling a scrapbook. The gas company presented each a Certificate of Merit for meeting requirements of the cooking school. Lesson material included a discussion of nutrition, featuring the Basic Seven; breakfast and lunch preparation, with foods eaten during classes sessions; and baking of various kinds of cookies. For their tea, the girls prepared pink lemonade punch and cookies.

Troop leaders are Mrs. Headlund and Mrs. Niedzialek, who have provided class transportation for the girls each week.

Her white Bible, tied with white roses and satin streamers, was the gift of her aunt, Mrs. Mable Taylor.

Tom Ann Licastro, as maid of honor, wore pink chiffon over matching satin. Her head-dress was created of pink and white carnations and her pearl necklace was a gift of the bride. Pink and white carnations formed her colonial bouquet. ## Scholarship Fund Benefit Play Is Artfully Staged by Theatre Group

Upwards of 600 Warren county students and parents jammed Beatty Junior High School auditorium Saturday afternoon for the presentation of "Heidi", second in the current series of Community PTA plays and benefit for the Scholarship Fund.

The cast, composed of Warren Children's Theatre members, under the able direction of Mrs. John O'Hara, found Kathy Steinkamp in the title role of Heidi, with Russell Rudolph giving his usual fine performance in the role of the grandfather. Craig Scalise was seen as Peter, the goatherd and Gloria Morgan portrayed Clara, the invalid cousin.

Supporting the principals were Steve Cullman as Clara's father; Patty Lowe, as Fraulein Rottenmeier; Heidi's aunt Dete, Vonnice Morgan; Cindy Dunham as Peter's mother; Sally Newmaker as the grandmother; Seppi, Bill Dickson; Dorothy Irvine, as Clara's grandmother; Mary Cashman as Tintette; and Jim Eldridge as the Minister from Dorflay.

Behind the scenes Nancy Coyle was kept busy as prompter; Bob Rice and Butch Tranter were managing sets, while Jan Schneck and Sue Lowe handled props. Also behind the scenes, was Kay Gorenflo, talented imitator, who supplied the sound effects of the bleating goat, and the meowing kitten. Dick Rapp, with his ability to effect unique lighting, set the entire stage aglow with a Swiss mountain sunset, and other tremendous lighting aids. The presence of a real baby goat and baby kitten added a note of realism to the play, and captivated the entire audience.

Between scenes, Patty O'Hara acted as mistress of ceremonies, seeing that the audience didn't become restless, and presented Nancy Coyle in her adaptation of the famous Eloise, a brilliant likeness, and monologue. Also Jill O'Hara, ballet study of Dick Rapp, pleased the audience with her fine dance tempos in several of the scenes of the play.

Truly students and adults, alike, thoroughly enjoyed seeing Children's Theatre present "Heidi", and refreshed their memories of this delightful classic.

Especially impressive was the Swiss Alps mountain range seen in the background. To carry out the natural attributes of the setting, the green mountain path with the hut of Heidi's grandfather, and the evergreens, were all real, as were potted geraniums and other flowers used to stage the production. Staging of this particular play was sheer perfection, and the quaint Swiss costumes were authentic dress of the day.

Kathy Steinkamp, newcomer to Children's Theatre this season deserves a royal welcome as a talented young actress, for her portrayal of the little orphaned Heidi, who found good and truth in mankind and whose sweet disposition touched the audience, pointing up her first stage triumph.

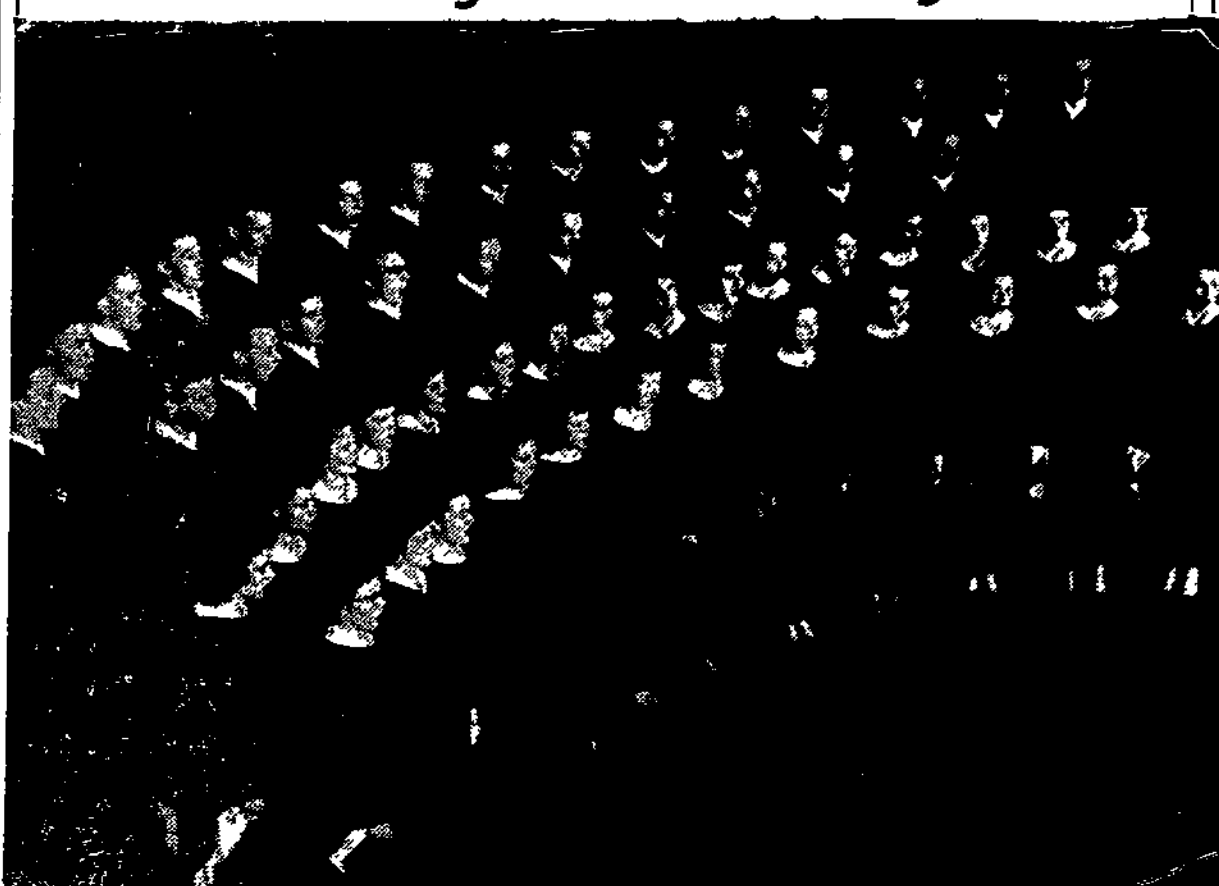

Others in the cast gave equally laudable performances, and special thanks is due the backstage crew, who worked so diligently to make "Heidi" the successful play it was.

It is gratifying to see so many students take advantage of these wonderful children's plays, produced for the Community PTA Council by Mrs. O'Hara and her Children's Theatre. With such groups gaining precedence all over the United States, we can point with pride to our own local troupe and the marvelous entertainment channel it affords.

Final play of the season will be "The Wizard of Oz", slated for April 18, 2:00 p. m. in the Beatty School auditorium.

Letters to Editor

To the Editor:
Yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church, an audience which filled the sanctuary heard an unforgettable performance of Mendelssohn's "Elijah." The choir and audience represented many denominations, brought together by a common love—the giving and receiving of fine music, certainly a shining example of what can be accomplished by community spirit.

To adequately describe the splendid work of the choir, soloists, children's choirs and accompanist, would indeed be difficult. However no one who was present to enjoy this Lenten treat could fail to reflect on the able manner in which the oratorio was directed. One often wonders if our community truly appreciates the fine work being laid down by Mr. Fowler, not only in this instance, but in the many pleasurable evenings in which his high school choir has sung so beautifully under his baton.

In this ballistic age when the ultimate goal of man seems to be "out of this world" it is gratifying to recall that good music, ably executed, has been doing just that to people of all ages, and surely the experience afforded those who listened yesterday, was no exception.

Without attempting to be flowery, we should like to sincerely thank Mr. Fowler for taking time in an already over-busy schedule to make this thrilling performance possible.

TRUCK CRASHES ON BRIDGE: Traffic was halted shortly after 3:30 a. m. Saturday morning while two tow trucks struggled to free the cab of this gasoline tanker from the steel beam of a bridge west of Pittsfield. The driver of the tanker, James E. Donovan, 32, RD 1, Titusville, apparently fell asleep and climbed the abutment as pictured by Harley B. See, Youngsville. Warren State Police state that Donovan was en route to Warren from Titusville to pick up a gasoline load for employer, the Trans Penn Wax Corporation at Titusville, and that he must have dozed off near the west end of the steel span which carries Route 27 over the Little Brokenstraw. The rig crossed the highway, slamming into the north side of the steel structure, and halting at that point. Donovan suffered injuries to both knees, right shoulder, head and body but did not require hospitalization. Police estimate total damages at $11,000 but the bridge involved remains unscathed.

Conant Recommendations Considered at Meeting of Northern Area Joint Board

A digest of "The American High School Today" by Dr. James B. Conant with emphasis on points pertinent to Northern Area Joint School System was the primary topic considered at the February meeting of Northern Area Joint School Board. Under Carnegie Corporation auspices, Conant issued a report for use by all interested citizens in the nation and it was noted that many suggestions are currently used or will be met in Northern Area schools.

Conant's recommendation concerning a four-year program in each foreign language was discussed and it was noted that three foreign languages (French, German and Latin) are available now at Eisenhower High School, but that each is being taught through only the second year.

Additional extended discussion concerned a specific written school board philosophy presented for board consideration by the Ways and Means committee and is being developed as desired by board members. Its purpose is to provide written statement of specific principles and objectives as acknowledged framework within which all Northern Area policies, programs, and plans shall be ordered with the intention that said philosophy become a portion of written school board policy now being conceived.

Norge Luvison, administrative assistant, reported a meeting with the Lander Civil Defense Police Unit attended last month, which resulted in adoption of an official resolution commending the organization for invaluable services rendered to the school system through providing police personnel assistance in handling every major public event in Eisenhower High School building throughout last year. It was pointed out that though these persons serve in a voluntary capacity at the specific invitation of Northern Area Joint School Board, they should be accorded the same consideration, respect and obedience due every police officer.

Floyd Marsh, personnel committee chairman, recommended Richard Hiebrecht of Warren, Pennsylvania State University graduate, for employment as high school English instructor. Hiebrecht will instruct classes in 11th and 12th grade English and Journalism, having received his bachelor's degree during mid-year commencement January 25.

Benton Bairstow, Ways and Means committee chairman, reported 20 high school students enrolled in special college preparatory classes in English meeting during regular adult education program to include classes in agriculture, arts and crafts, sewing, beginning and advanced typing and woodworking shop be approved for second semester, this being approved. Some 77 students are enrolled for these courses with additional registrations expected.

The Building Committee report dealt with recent building inspections conducted by the Departments of Health and Safety, Labor and Industry, and though full reports are still unavailable, purchase of additional compressed air fire sirens and fire extinguishers was authorized.

Charles Peterson, Transportation committee chairman, reported two meetings concerning procurement of contracts for transportation of students for the next three years, indicating further meetings planned. The consensus of bus contractors reports to the committee indicates that supervisors of Northern Area townships, now cindering hills and curves on secondary roads used by school buses, are to be commended for contributions to safety and welfare of children. Donald Hedberg, custodian, was complimented for care of school bus shelter problems and construction of 3 new ones ordered.

With Alden Abbott, board president, presiding, January minutes were approved as presented by Mrs. Hazel Kays, secretary; bills totaling $2,143.38 for elementary schools and $6,680.31 for high school were approved; added insurance coverage proposals were studied and referred to Richard Leuthold, solicitor for perusal; Committee meeting dates for work on proposed 1959-60 budget were set.

A school board-school employee dinner will be held March 30 in Eisenhower High School cafeteria, employees to be guests. Plans were also made for further study of Northern Area's insurance program to be conducted by the Ways and Means committee.

Receipts listed included: Tuition for Warren Student attending Eisenhower school, $122.89; Cafeteria, $1,160.16, for payment

Personality of The Month!

From the Conewango Clippings, S. P. E. B. S. Q. S. A. Chapter Seneca Lands District!

We are going to try something new this month stolen from "Woodshed Echoes," bulletin of the Beaver Valley Chapter at Rochester, Pa. Looks like a good way to get to know each other better.

Where we get our information is confidential. (We reserve the right to protect our information sources.)

Starting at the top of the list we are going to use Robert M. Brown, above, our Chapter President, for our first personality.

Bob was born on August 4, 1909, in Jamestown. He is one of six children and is of German and English descent. He moved to Youngsville at the age of five and spent most of his life there until he grew up and decided to improve himself by moving to Warren.

On January 9, 1942, (1-9-42—Easy to remember) he married his wife Jeanne. They now live at 46 Duncan Blvd., Pleasant Township, with their 3 children in a new home they built just a couple of years ago.

Bob works as a draftsman at the National Forge in Irvine and has been with them for 30 years. He is an active member of the First Presbyterian Church serving as Secretary of the Church School. His hobbies are Barbershopping and The Gracian Society.

We as a Chapter are indeed fortunate to have such a fine person as Bob in our membership as our 1958-59 President.

These Talents Can Supplant Many Feminine Shortcomings

It doesn't matter much if you don't have beauty, wit or wealth if you have these feminine talents:

The knack for making any kind of living quarters homelike. The woman who can do this doesn't need expensive furniture, the services of a decorator, or a fine house. She has something a lot more important, the ability to bring warmth and charm and comfort to any place she calls home.

The ability to bring out the best in others. The woman who can make others pleased with themselves will reap the reward of making them also pleased with her. This one knack will bring her love and friendships that beauty alone can attract but seldom hold.

A talent of understanding others. The woman who is able to put herself in another person's place is always sought out because others feel they can be themselves with her.

The talent for enjoying small pleasures and meeting life with good-natured enthusiasm. Work isn't drudgery to a woman who refuses to see it as such. She can get pleasure where women without her talent find only frustration.

The talent of being herself. The woman who isn't afraid to be just what she is, without pretense or striving to impress others is a happy woman who is fun to be with.

The talent for creating gaiety. The woman who can laugh at herself and at the wit of others, doesn't need to be witty herself. She'll brighten any gathering just by her lighthearted approach to living.

Few women have all of the talents listed here. But even two or three of them will make a woman outstanding.

Eight of the 14 box cars aboard did topple as the barge was being towed from Hoboken, N. J. Coast Guard helicopters warned vessels away from the submerged cars.

OUT OF PLACE—Instead of being put on top of the church in the usual position, this belfry stands beside it. The pagoda-like wooden structure is a distinctive feature of the 13th Century Church of St. Augustine at Brookland, England. Legend says the architect had no paper large enough to contain his plan. He drew the belfry in the foreground and it was mistakenly built there.

IN THE CLASSROOM—Six-year-old Philip Little is just one of the kids at school in Hanover, Pa., but he has one distinction. The lad has been named the national 1959 Easter Seal Child of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults. Crippled from birth, Philip is able to walk with the aid of crutches and braces, and he manages to get around very well. The 1959 Easter Seal campaign is scheduled to begin on February 27th.

PONCHO—After a tense day on the ski slopes, this poncho billows comfortably over tapered ski pants and is just the thing for restful hours before an open fireplace. The flattering topper, done in snowy Swiss cotton, is trimmed with blue and white Swiss cotton knit to match the trousers.

CLOSE-UP—Two goats at the Zoo in London, England, are investigating. They're standing head to head, but if they suddenly decide they don't see eye to eye, their horns could become locked even more quickly than a flash.

BETTER THAN NOTHING—This flower seller in Paris, France, has wrapped herself up in plastic as protection from cold winter weather. Her transparent tent enables her to continue offering her wares to passers-by who want some posies.

SWEET REASON—Old-fashioned ox carts, such as the one at left, are staging a temporary comeback in Cuba's all-out effort to get its multi-million dollar sugar cane crop to market. This one at Pinar Del Rio is tilted at the proper angle for loading. The truck beside it had to be run up on a platform in order to get it into the necessary position.

OLD, OLD, OLD—These are the kind of coiffures some ladies liked about 23 centuries ago. They were revealed on figurines unearthed by an archeological team in West Pakistan during the excavation of the ancient caravan city of Charsadda, once part of Persia.

THEY'RE HER CHOICE—In Sonoma, Calif., former WAC Jean May Fuller is shown with the six Japanese-American orphans she's rearing as her own because she believes "one parent is better than none." The kids are off-spring of GI fathers and Japanese mothers, and they're growing up on Miss Fuller's 15-acre chicken ranch, with a full share of love.

UNDER THEIR HATS—Perhaps they felt the sun was just too warm in Florida's Silver Springs. At any rate, Kae Rae Dirlam (left) and Judy Scott have nothing to fear from its rays; they're too well protected by those enormous straw hats.

United States Is Winner of First Four-Man Title

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland (AP) — Art Tyler, 43-year-old Weston, Mass., physicist, has given the United States its first world four-man bobsled title in six years.

And with it came the renewed hope that the 1960 Winter Olympics may again include bobsled competition.

Tyler, who didn't take up the sport until he was 35, conquered the tricky and treacherous milong chute and the world's best bobsleds Sunday as he posted a total time of 5 minutes, 10.32 seconds for four runs.

Tyler's time, including a record run of 1:17.42 in Saturday's second heat, gave the American sled a margin of 35 hundredths of a second over the second place Italian sled, piloted by Sergio Zardini.

The Italians were clocked in 5:11.17.

University Freshman Predicts Record Jump

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—John Thomas, a freshman at the University of California, predicted today he will jump 7 feet, 1 1/2 inches in the National AAU Indoor Track and Field Championships Saturday.

No one in history ever has propelled himself that high—indoors or outdoors.

The world outdoor record is 7-1 by the Soviet Union's Yuri (Elevator Shoe) Stepanov.

The amazing 17-year-old Boston University freshman cleared an even 7-foot for the second time in three weeks in the New York Athletic Club Games in Madison Square Garden last Saturday and just did miss at 7-1 1/2.

Titusville Blasts Dragons Out of Serious Contention For Top Spot in League

Titusville High exploded in the first quarter Friday night to blast arch-rival Warren out of serious contention for league laurels with a convincing 68-51 victory before a standing room only crowd.

The defending champions threw a blanket on Warren ace Nicky Creola who was held to 14 points and while doing so shook three of their players loose for points in the double figures.

Paced by George Dewey, Ron Warner and Dick Platt, the Rockets were redhot at the outset and outscored Warren 20-8 in the first eight minutes of play for a commanding lead which was never seriously threatened.

Despite the Dragon efforts to get back into the ball game, the charges of Coach "Bus" Shaner—a veteran tournament club—resorted to pattern ball and controlled the action to breeze in with the win that allowed them to remain in a deadlock for first place with Franklin and Meadville with a 6-2 record while Warren dropped one game behind at 5-3.

Dewey, the league's leading scorer and a veteran of three campaigns, led the balanced Rocket offense with 27 points.

Ron Warner, the player who was "out for the season" because of a mysterious illness, contributed 16. Platt, an unheralded member of the starting five, chipped in with 12. Beason—usually a high scorer in the Rocket offense—was kept busy guarding Creola and also sacrificing his scoring chances to set up his mates for scoring drives.

Warren, with visions of a triumph, was unfortunate in meeting a team that just couldn't miss—particularly in the first canto. As Coach Shaner put it—"We had one of our best shooting nights, and when a team is not you can't do much about it."

Oddly enough two of the three Warren losses have come in crucial games and on the home hardwood. Meadville defeated the Dragons at Warren and the game followed the identical script. A big first period and the rest of the game being played on a fairly even basis.

The Dragons rallied during the second stanza to outscore the Brown and Gold 13-12 and trailed at intermission 32-21. Still fighting an uphill battle, the local cagers cut the margin to eight points on two occasions at 34-26 and 36-28 before they faltered again to see the

Dragon Jayvees Win Preliminary By 34-33 Score

Pat Hartnett came off the bench in the final quarter to spark a last ditch rally which enabled the Dragon J. V. five to eke out a thrilling 34-33 victory over the Titusville Rocket Jayvees in an exciting preliminary Friday night.

Hartnett's bucket and four out of four free tosses along with Johnny Barr's two goals were the big guns in Warren's 14 point last quarter drive that saw the opposition's three point advantage disappear.

Titusville responded by sinking led 23-20 going into the last period but they couldn't make it stand up under the Warren attack. The win evened the series between the two teams and was a thriller all the way with the large crowd enjoying every minute of the action.

S'western Trojans Score Low to Down NA Knights

Northern Area mentor Jack Binney told the Post-Journal staff that "Southwestern was a beautiful team—the best we've played all year" after SW trounced the Knights in a low-scoring 27-18 contest Friday night.

It was interestingly noted that Southwestern beat Northern Area 27-18 in a football game in 1955.

Southwestern coach Gene Erb, explained: "Northern used a 'retreating zone' defense which meant if we took a shot and missed, they were almost a sure bet to get the ball. We couldn't safely get off more than eight shots a period."

Al Ludwick was the only cager—from either squad—who hit in the double scoring figures. Al bucketed 10 for the Knights. Starting five on each squad went all the way.

Southwestern led 16-9 at intermission and put finishing touches to the win in third period. Scoring was tied up in last canto.

Northern Area's junior varsity squad got vengeance for an earlier defeat at Southwestern's hand by taking the prelim 53-44. For the Jayvees, Grant led scoring race with 15, Thompson sank 11, Braley 14, Livezey 12 and Peterson 1. Johnson was high for S'western with 14.

Knights' get back into their Upper Allegheny Valley League pace Tuesday night, traveling to West Forest. The foresters haven't won a game in League competition this year, NA is in fourth place.

Dutch Remain in AML Running as Sheffield Takes 72 to 64 Nosedive

St. Vincent Favored To Repeat as District X Titlist

By FRED WALTERS
The Associated Press

Before the final whistle blows on the 1958-59 PIAA Class A basketball campaign, the role of district champions may be all but wiped clean of 1958 champions.

District 5 already has a new champion in Everett, which has succeeded Bedford.

Haverford, Dist. 1, and state champion last year, already has been eliminated from consideration. Plymouth of Dist. 2 has a slim mathematical chance of even making its district's playoffs.

York of Dist. 3 is at best a dark horse contender.

Williamsport of Dist. 4 looks best in its district again this year but faces a tough task in just making the playoffs. Altoona looks like the best team in Dist. 4 again. It was runnerup to Haverford last year. Charleroi once again has a strong club in Dist. 7 (WPIAL), but it, too, faces a stern task in making its district playoffs.

Langley never was in contention this year in Dist. 8 (Pittsburgh) while Dist. 9 king Punxsutawney finds itself in an underdog role in its bid to repeat.

Erle Strong Vincent is favored to repeat in Dist. 10, but Bethlehem is out of it in Dist. 11.

The list of favorites in each district—with the leading contenders—looks like this today:

Dist. 1—Chester with Ambler, West Chester, Bristol, Lansdowne—Aldan and Yeadon.

Dist. 2—Old Forge with Nanticoke.

Dist. 3—Carlisle with Harrisburg, William Penn and York.

Dist. 4—Williamsport with Shamokin, Kulpport, Milton and Sayre.

Dist. 5—Everett.

Dist. 6—Altoona with Indiana, Johnstown, Richland Twp., Lewisburg, Hollidaysburg and Lock Haven.

Dist. 7—Farrell with any section champion.

Dist. 8 (Pittsburgh)—No favorite. Peabody and South Hills lead the two leagues: Westinghouse, Fifth Ave. and Oliver are the runners-up.

Dist. 9—DuBois with Punxsutawney.

Dist. 10—Erle Strong Vincent with Titusville, Franklin, Meadville, Warren and Sharpsville.

Dist. 11—Allentown with Hazleton, Tamaqua, Mahanoy Twp., Ennasmus, Whitehall and Parkland.

Littler Winner Of His Second Tourney in Row

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—A 250-yard approach that stopped eight feet from the 18th pin clinched the $15,000 Tucson Open and his second tournament in a row for Gene Littler Sunday.

It didn't matter that his putt for an eagle stopped an inch short. Littler tapped in a birdie and won $2,000.

"That wood shot was the key to the tourney," he grinned.

The San Diego, Calif., pro trailed rookie Joe Campbell by six strokes and Art Wall Jr. by three going into the final round.

Both leaders faltered, soaring over par. Littler took the lead with a 20-foot putt from the apron of the 13th green for a birdie. Going into the 550-yard 18th, he led by a stroke.

The tournament was over when Littler's second shot was pin high. Wall birdied the hole for the fourth time. Campbell needed a 40-foot putt for an eagle and a tie. He missed by a foot but got a birdie.

Oakland Area Main Center Of Activity Along Wabash

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The farming area near Oakland, Ind., became the main center of activity along the flooded Wabash River today as the danger in upstream communities appeared easing.
National Guardsmen were sent by Gov. Harold W. Handley into the Oakland area, about 40 miles south of Terre Haute, to strengthen an old levee. A break in the levee would flood thousands of acres of farm land.
Dry weather prevailed in the flood zones and also in wide areas throughout the country east of the Rockies. The country's wettest region was in the Pacific Coast.
Officials in the flood sections of Indiana, which forced some 1,700 families from their homes last week, said barring heavy rains, the worst of the overflows appeared ended.
However, Weather Bureau officials said it would be two weeks before the Wabash falls below flood stage at West Terre Haute. A temporary dike of sandbags held Sunday against another small rise in the swollen river. A huge ice jam remained near Delphi although thawing temperatures over the weekend dislodged some big chunks.
Cooler weather moved into two separate sections east of the Continental Divide. Temperatures dropped in most areas from eastern Texas and the Gulf Coast to the Ohio River and to all of the Atlantic Seaboard except Florida.
Biggest drops were in New England, where readings were below zero in northern sections.
A second cold front extended from areas in Montana east of the Divide and into the Dakotas. The cold air headed into the central plains and eastward to the upper and middle Mississippi valleys and the upper Great Lakes region.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette said today Pennsylvania's Rural Electrification Administration cooperatives want the proposed Kinzua dam near Warren to be used for electric power generation as well as flood control.
The newspaper said 13 cooperatives want electric generators installed at the dam.
Some sources, according to the paper, believe the dam would have a 40,000 kilowatt capacity. Steam plants may have to be used to power generators when the dam's water supply is low, the paper said.

of State Dulles at a recent news conference. He said it would not work.

The call for a foreign ministers meeting was worked out in diplomatic conferences by the State Department and representatives here of the British, French and West German governments. It represents a counter-proposal to the Soviet peace conference proposal. At the same time it constitutes a serious bid to get negotiations started with the Russians on Germany.
It is aimed to get talks going ahead of Russia's deadline for a new Berlin crisis. The Russians have threatened to turn over control of East Germany—and the access routes to West Berlin—to the East German Communists in May.

Among officials here and in other Western capitals there is strong expectation that the Soviets will agree to a foreign ministers meeting of some kind, perhaps after bargaining as to time, place and participants. The Soviets may insist on including Poland and Czechoslovakia.

County Development Association Urges Dam Construction

According to a release received by the Times-Mirror early this afternoon the board of directors of the Warren County Development Association has gone on record favoring early construction of the Kinzua Dam in a formal resolution released today. The Association urged Congressional approval of funds to enable the Army Engineers to proceed as soon as possible with planning and construction of the dam. The Association directed its resolution to the Appropriations Committee of the U. S. House of Representatives and announced that it will send a representative to appear before the committee when the Army Engineers' budget comes up for hearing soon. The Association also released a letter to Congressman L. H. Gavin endorsing the stand of the representative's request for a $2,000,000 appropriation for the Army Engineers. The Association endorsed the dam as a means of preventing flood damage and repeated disruption to existing industry in the county.

Committee Asks $50,000 To Probe Mine Flooding

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. Frank Kopriver (R-Allegheny) said today the legislative investigating committee set up to look into the Fort Griffith mine flooding tragedy will ask for $50,000 to conduct the probe.

"The way I feel is that it will cost quite a bit to hire mining engineers and other technical help to conduct this probe in the right manner," Kopriver said.

The Allegheny County lawmaker who is a co-chairman of the 10-member house and senate committee, said some speculation originally centered around a $10,000 figure for the probe.

"I feel that it would be better for us to ask for the $50,000 and return what we have left than to start with insufficient funds and have to ask for more," Kopriver said.

Erie Mayor Says Gas Tax Increase Necessary

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Mayor Arthur J. Gardner of Erie said today the governor's Tax Advisory Committee has shown no interest in a proposed hike in state gasoline taxes. Gardner, who is a member of the 13-man committee, said: "I wanted the committee to consider the gasoline tax question along with other revenue problems. I made overtures along this line on several occasions but didn't get anywhere."

Gardner said a gasoline tax increase is necessary to provide the state with revenue for its share of construction costs for the planned Erie to Pittsburgh thruway.

The mayor said the highway is vital to Erie's economic growth.

What Mrs. Roosevelt will receive for the commercials has not been disclosed.

The Red China of Today

(Part I)

The Army of Blue Ants

Editor's Note — The Communist engineered changes in China are enormous, and so is the price paid in human terms. Dr. Sripati Chandrasekhar, noted scholar and director of India's Institute for Population at Madras, recently returned from extensive travel in the Bamboo Curtain. This is the first of five searching articles he has written on life in Communist China.

By Dr. Sripati Chandrasekhar
Copyright, 1959

By The Associated Press

I spent about six weeks in Communist China and traveled widely by plane, train, car and jeep, visiting a dozen major cities, a few villages, and four communes. I traveled as far as Harbin in Manchuria in the north, Lan-kow in the west, Shanghai in the east and Canton and Shumchun in the south.

This huge nation has embarked upon an experiment which seeks to accomplish in one day what other nations normally take 20 years to do. This last sentence is in fact a Chinese Communist slogan. "Twenty years compressed into one day."

What is this communism they are after and how are they trying to achieve it? Is Chinese communism the same communism we know in the Soviet Union or is it different in any material particulars?

Even the most casual traveler in Red China cannot but be struck with five aspects of the people and their economy. These are: dress, the continuous din of broadcast propaganda, the country's extraordinary cleanliness, the tremendous labor effort and the new position of women.

Take dress. Everyone, men and women of all ages, is dressed in blue trousers and buttoned-up coats with collars like the uniform of Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung. To a newcomer, men and women look almost alike, for all the women have taken to shoulder-length bobs.

It was explained to me that this new haircut, replacing the twin pigtail, saves time in washing and combing; and I must admit that this new hair style needs no attention. You run your comb through your hair and you are all set.

The second thing that no one can escape is the ubiquitous radio and the loudspeaker. This started when I boarded the train at Chumchun, the frontier station, taking me to Canton.

Even in a most backward and traditional village I saw a loudspeaker hidden in a tree-top. You can escape the sun, and the moon but you cannot escape the radio and the loudspeaker. And what does this radio pour out day and night? Everything that the government approves.

This is the most important medium for approved news — news of the nation's progress, industrial output, how to make a smelter, how to defeat the American "imperialists," how to be a good Communist, how to be neat, how to denounce the rightists, how to behave in a train, how to kill a rat or a sparrow, how to cook a sweet potato — and a thousand other things interspersed with traditional Chinese opera with its deafening gongs and cymbals and martial and marching songs.

The reason behind the loudspeaker is really a simple one. In a far-flung nation of 650 million, where literacy is not widespread and where, consequently, the printed word is relatively ineffective, the only way to reach the citizen is via the radio in the relaying loudspeaker which cannot be controlled and cannot even be turned off.

Next: A nation hard at work.

WIFTY PLAY IS REWARDED

They are all old friends that have appeared in the same or very similar form in this column and other bridge writings over the years but they are treated with a sprightly freshness and many illustrate points of play that are apt to be overlooked.

He stresses safety plays to make your contract. Thus in one hand South is declarer at three no-trump after a spade overcall by West, a double by North and a diamond rescue by East.

South wins the third diamond lead and notes that he can afford to lose a trick to the king of spades if West holds it but cannot let East get the lead for those two good diamonds West ought to hold the king of spades for his overcall but who cares. South plays dummy's ace of spades, drops East's singleton king and makes five no-trump.

How does he make five no-trump? A simple squeeze against East does the trick. On the fourth spade lead, East has to unguard either the queen of clubs or the jack of hearts.

CARD Sense
Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 2 N.T. Pass
3 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Pass
4 ♠ Pass ?

You South, hold:
♠ K 6 5 W 9 6 A 10 3 ♣ K 10 8 7

What do you do?
A—Bid four no-trump. This cannot be read as Blackwood but merely is the cheapest bid you can make. Your two no-trump was a minimum to start with.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Your partner bids five spades over your four no-trump. What do you do now?

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

America has 79 million drivers and some 10 million car accidents a year. But here's the eyeopener: One per cent of these drivers, habitual offenders, cause 15 per cent of the accidents.

What is the talkingest town? Maybe New York City. Its eight million residents make 18,700,000 phone calls a day, or more than two for each person.

Hair-raising history: The nobility of ancient Rome had an odd way to cover up baldness. They wore wigs made from the scalps of the daughters of captured chieftains.

You're wrong if you think most of today's children are worthless. A survey showed that 7 of 10 youngsters in the 8-to-12-year-old bracket help mother dry the dishes, set the table, make beds, and tidy up the house.

Fine arts note: Some 75 per cent of the visitors to the Louvre in Paris go there to see the Mona Lisa. But when the painting was removed for repairs, the empty space on the wall drew more visitors than the lady normally did herself.

A bird lover sends us this bit of feathered lore. "A parakeet with a blue beak is a guy and a parakeet with a gray or yellow beak is a doll."

It is getting harder all the time to find a barber who'll give you an old-fashioned straight-edged razor shave—too much bother. Some barbers now even have free shave booths in their shops in which customers, after getting a cut, can shave themselves for nothing.

Are you superstitious? Do you carry a good luck piece? The National Geographic Society says the best of all lucky charms is the left hand paw from a rabbit that was killed in a graveyard by a cross-eyed person in the dark of the moon. That's why rabbits wear left hand paws — they're lucky.

Here's a helpful hint for ladies who didn't get a Valentine. There is an old belief, girls, that if you drink white wine and rosewater, then look at the moon through a silk scarf, you'll see the face of your future husband. Warning: This trick works only for maidens. It's no good for divorcees or hopeful widows.

Word game. Actress Lisa Kirk's definition of the world's biggest bush-hush business is baby sitting.

Americans haven't lost their sweet tooth, despite the dieting craze. We eat an average of 18 pounds of candy yearly. Incidentally, a piece of ordinary boxed candy contains about 47 calories.

George Washington, lucky at war, wasn't so lucky at cards. He was an inveterate player, but his diaries note he lost at the card table more often than he won.

Odd facts about women: the average woman prefers bath water five degrees warmer than does the average man. A survey in a Cleveland nursing home showed obesity was eight times more frequent among elderly women than elderly men.

Boxing sidelight: heavyweight champ John L. Sullivan never would enter the ring before his opponent did. He believed that "the guy who goes in first goes out last — feet first." Sullivan broke this lifelong rule in his fight with James J. Corbett and lost his title.

Diamonds are a popular hedge against inflation, but nothing beats man's oldest property, real estate.

The 50 - million - dollar Empire State Building now stands on one corner of a Manhattan farm that sold in 1799 for only $7,000. In 160 years the farm land went up much more than 1,000 times its 1799 value.

It was William Somerset Maugham who observed. "A woman can forgive a man for the harm he does her, but she can never forgive him for the sacrifices he makes on her account."
